SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT FOR SMITH CLASS

This agreement, dated July 24, 2019, (the “Agreement”) is made and entered into by and among Plaintiff Joshua R. Smith, individually and as court-designated Class Representative (The “Representative Plaintiff”), and Defendant Metropolitan Life Insurance Company (“MetLife”), by and through their respective counsel, to settle and compromise the claims asserted by Representative Plaintiff on behalf of himself and the Smith Settlement Class in the above-captioned Action, according to the terms and conditions herein and subject to approval by the above-captioned court (the “Court”).

I. THE LITIGATION

A. Procedural Background

This Action is pending before the Honorable Richard W. Story in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia. The initial complaint was filed on April 17, 2014, asserting claims under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (“ERISA”) Sections 404(a) and 406(a) and (b) and a claim on behalf of a Georgia subclass under Georgia law.

B. Certification of the Smith Settlement Class

The Smith Settlement Class is defined as follows:

All life insurance beneficiaries of ERISA-governed employee benefit plans that were insured by group life insurance policies issued by MetLife that provide for payment in “one sum” for whom MetLife established a “Total Control Account” (a) between January 1, 2013 and March 31, 2019; and (b) between April 18, 2008, and December 31, 2012 for all policies that, at the time of the insured's death, contained the statement in the policy certificate or an endorsement to the policy certificate that expressly states that claims for benefits can be settled “by establishing an account that earns interest.”¹

¹ For purposes of this settlement, by agreement of the parties, a policy certificate is deemed to include this language as of the date that MetLife’s records produced in this litigation indicate MetLife: (a) issued to the policyholder a rider that purported to amend or clarify the policy to include this language; or (b) included such language in a newly-issued certificate. In addition, based upon documents produced by MetLife and deposition testimony provided on its behalf, for all policies and customers for whom a specific rider or certificate has not been identified and produced to Plaintiffs as of March 31, 2019, all such policies are deemed to include this language (a) as of September 1, 2012, for all policies associated with customers MetLife categorizes as “National Accounts” or “Regional Market” accounts; and (b)

MetLife has represented that there are 128,750 members of the Smith Settlement Class (hereinafter “Class Members”). This Smith Settlement Class is hereinafter denominated the “Settlement Class” or “Class.” Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed in any fashion either directly or indirectly, as evidence or admission by MetLife that the Class was properly certified. The Settling Parties agree that the provisions herein concerning certification of the Settlement Class shall have no effect whatsoever in the event that the Settlement does not become Final.

II. METLIFE’S DENIAL OF WRONGDOING AND LIABILITY

MetLife has denied, and continues to deny, the legal claims asserted in this Action, including any and all charges of wrongdoing or liability arising out of any of the conduct, statements, acts or omissions alleged, or that could have been alleged, in the litigation and maintains that the claims in this Action have no merit. This Agreement is for settlement purposes only and shall have no precedential value in any future litigation. MetLife expressly denies any liability to any Class Member for any purpose and states that this Agreement was entered into solely for the purpose of settling and compromising disputed claims and to avoid the cost of litigation and for no other purpose. MetLife expressly preserves any and all as of December 31, 2012 for all policies associated with customers MetLife categorizes as “Local Market” accounts.

defenses to any potential claims that are or may be filed by any non-settling Class Member.

III. BENEFITS OF SETTLEMENT TO THE CLASS

The Representative Plaintiff alleges that MetLife's settlement of life insurance benefits through the creation of a retained asset accounts known as a Total Control Accounts violated MetLife's alleged fiduciary duties under ERISA, constituted a prohibited transaction under ERISA, and violated Georgia law.

Although the Representative Plaintiff believes his claims have merit, after discovery and extensive motion practice, he fully appreciates the strengths and weaknesses of the claims and the attendant risks and uncertain outcome of the Action. The Representative Plaintiff has also considered the expense and length of continued proceedings that would be necessary to prosecute the claims against MetLife through trial and appeal, as well as the difficulties and delays inherent in such litigation. Based on their evaluation of all of these factors, and following vigorous, arms-length negotiations, and mediation under the auspices of the Court, Class Counsel has determined that this Agreement confers substantial benefits upon the members of the Settlement Class and is fair, reasonable, and in the best interests of the Settlement Class.

IV. TERMS AND AGREEMENT OF SETTLEMENT

It is agreed by and among the Settling Parties, by and through their counsel or attorneys of record, that, subject to the approval of the Court pursuant to Rule 23(e) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Action and the Released Claims shall be finally and fully compromised, settled and released, and the Action shall be dismissed with prejudice, as to all Settling Parties, upon and subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, as follows:

3.1. It shall be solely Class Counsel's responsibility, in concert with the Settlement Administrator, to ensure that the Settlement Notice is disseminated to the Class in accordance with this Agreement and as ordered by the Court. Class Members shall have no recourse as to Defendants or the Released Parties with respect to any claims they may have that arise from any failure of the Settlement Administrator or Class Counsel to follow proper notice procedures.

3.2. MetLife will provide a spreadsheet containing the name, last known address and social security number of each class member to the Settlement Administrator and Class Counsel within five (5) calendar days after the entry of the Preliminary Approval Order. Class Counsel and the Settlement Administrator will maintain the information on the spreadsheet pursuant to the Consent Confidentiality and Protective Order entered in the Action.

3.6.2. If the objector is represented by an attorney who intends to seek fees and expenses from anyone other than the objectors he or she represents, the objection should also include (i) a description of the attorney's legal background and prior experience in connection with class action litigation; (ii) the amount of fees sought by the attorney for representing the objector and the factual and legal justification for the fees being sought; (iii) a statement regarding whether the fees being sought are calculated on the basis of a lodestar, contingency, or other method; (iv) the number of hours already spent by the attorney and an estimate of the hours to be spent in the future; and (v) the attorney's hourly rate;

3.6.3. Any and all agreements that relate to the objection or the process of objecting, whether written or verbal, between objector or objector's counsel and any other person or entity;

3.6.4. A description of all evidence to be presented at the Final Approval Hearing in support of the objection, including a list of any witnesses, a summary of the expected testimony from each witness, and a copy of any documents or other non-oral material to be presented.

3.7. An objection will be deemed submitted and will be considered by the Court only if it is filed with the Court by the Objection Deadline set forth in the Settlement Notice. It is the responsibility of the objector to ensure proper filing so as to make certain that the objection is timely received by the Court.

3.8. The objecting Class Member must also provide a statement whether the objector intends to appear at the Final Approval Hearing, either with or without counsel. If the objector intends to appear at the Final Approval Hearing through counsel, his/her/its counsel must file a notice of appearance with the Court no later than thirty (30) business days before the hearing and shall cooperate fully in scheduling the objector's deposition.

The Administrator will, at least seven (7) calendar days before the Final Approval Hearing, file copies of all opt-out statements with the Court. The Settlement Class will not include any individuals who send timely and valid opt-out statements, and individuals who opt out are not entitled to any monetary award under this Settlement or to object to the Settlement.

3.10. By the date and in the manner set by the Court in the Preliminary Approval Order, and unless otherwise set forth below, the Settlement Administrator shall have prepared and provided CAFA notices to the Attorney General of the United States, the Secretary of the Department of Labor, and the Attorneys General of all states in which members of the Class reside, as specified by 28 U.S.C. § 1715, within ten (10) calendar days of Class Representatives' filing of the Settlement Agreement and proposed Preliminary Order. Subject to Court approval, the costs of such notice shall be paid by MetLife.

4. Final Judgment and Order of Dismissal

4.1. Upon approval by the Court of the Settlement, and not less than 90 days after the notices served pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1715, a Final Judgment shall be entered by the Court, substantially in the form of Exhibit A hereto, which shall:

4.1.1. Approve the Settlement embodied in this Agreement as fair, reasonable and adequate to the Settling Plaintiffs;

4.1.2. Adjudge that the form and methods of notifying the Class Members of the terms and conditions of the proposed Agreement meet the requirements of Rule 23(c)(2), any other applicable law, and due process, and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances; and due and sufficient notices of the Final Approval Hearing and the rights of all Class Members have been provided to all people, powers, and entities, entitled thereto;

5.5. MetLife's transfer of the Settlement Amount to the Settlement Fund shall be consideration for full and complete settlement and release of all of the Released Claims.

5.6. Other than the obligation to transfer or cause to be transferred the Settlement Amount to the Settlement Fund, neither Defendant nor Defendant's Released Parties shall have any obligation to make any other payment to the Settlement Fund, the Settlement Administrator, Class Counsel, the Representative Plaintiff, or Settling Plaintiffs pursuant to this Agreement.

6. Settlement Fund & Escrow Account

6.1. Pursuant to this Agreement, an escrow account shall be created under the control of the Settlement Administrator or other designated escrow agent, subject to judicial oversight by this Court for the purpose of making payments to members of the Settlement Class according to the terms of this Agreement.

6.2. All risks related to the distribution of the Settlement Fund in accordance with any Distribution Plan shall be borne by the Settlement Fund, and neither Defendant nor Released Parties shall bear any responsibility for, interest in, or liability whatsoever with respect to distribution decisions or the actions of the Settlement Administrator, or any transactions executed by the Settlement Administrator. The Representative Plaintiff and the Settling Plaintiffs release Defendant and Released Parties completely from any action, disputes, or liability with respect to the distribution, management, investment, or any other activities of the Settlement Administrator or any other Person involving any amounts held in the Settlement Fund.

6.3. The Settling Parties agree that the Settlement Fund is intended to be a “Qualified Settlement Fund” (“QSF”) under Section 468B of the Internal Revenue Code and Treas. Reg. § 1.468B-1, 26 CFR § 1.468B-1, et seq., and will be administered by the Settlement Administrator as such.

6.4. With respect to the QSF, the Settlement Administrator shall:

6.4.1. open and administer a settlement account in such a manner as to qualify and maintain the qualification of the QSF under Section 468B of the Internal Revenue Code and Treas. Reg. § 1.468B-1;

6.4.2. satisfy all federal, state and local income and other tax

The Settling Parties agree to cooperate with the Settlement Administrator and with one another to the extent reasonably necessary to carry out the provisions of this section. The Settlement Administrator shall indemnify MetLife for any penalty arising out of any error or incorrect calculation and/or interest with respect to any late deposit of the same.

7. Costs, Expenses, Fees and Service Award

7.2. Class Representative Service Awards: The Representative Plaintiff, through his undersigned counsel, shall be entitled to apply to the Court for an award from the Settlement Fund of up to $10,000 for his participation in the Action and his service to the Settlement Class (“the Class Representative Service Award”). 7.3. Attorneys’ Fee & Expense Award: Class Counsel shall be entitled to apply to the Court for an award from the Settlement Fund not to exceed one third of the Settlement Fund (i.e., not to exceed a total of $1,666,666) to (i) reimburse Class Counsel for costs and expenses they incurred in researching, preparing for, and litigating this Action, and (ii) pay attorneys' fees (the "Fee & Expense Award"). MetLife agrees not to oppose or appeal any such application. The Fee & Expense Award shall constitute full satisfaction of any obligation on the part of MetLife to pay any person, attorney, or law firm for costs, litigation expenses, attorneys' fees, or any other expense incurred on behalf of Plaintiff or the Class.

7.4. Prior to distribution of any monies to Class Members, the Settlement Administrator shall pay the following expenses out of the Settlement Fund:

7.4.1. All notice costs, costs associated with payment of the settlement proceeds, and Settlement Administrator fees. Notice costs shall include, inter alia, printing and mailing of the class settlement notice.

7.4.2. Reimbursement of Class Counsel's reasonable costs and expenses in such sum as the Court approves.

7.4.3. Class Counsel's fees and class representative payments in such sum as the Court approves.

7.5. Any award of attorneys' fees and expenses to Class Counsel shall be paid solely from the Settlement Fund. MetLife shall have no responsibility for payment of such fees or expenses. The fairness and reasonableness of the settlement will be determined without regard to the payment of attorneys' fees and expenses, and no objection, motion, or appeal with respect to such fees or expenses shall affect the finality of any judgment approving the settlement or any release related thereto. MetLife will take no position on attorneys' fees and expenses of Class Counsel as long as the amount sought does not exceed one third of the Settlement Fund. Any attorneys' fees and expenses judicially awarded to Class Counsel shall be paid to Class Counsel no later than fifteen (15) business days after the Effective Date.

7.6. Provided that this settlement receives the Court's final approval, any change in law arising after June 1, 2019, will not be relied upon by any party as a basis for refusing to carry out the terms of the Settlement set forth herein.

8. Release

8.1. Upon the Effective Date, the Representative Plaintiff and each of the Settling Plaintiffs shall be deemed to have, and by operation of the Judgment shall have, fully, finally and forever released, relinquished, and discharged all Released Claims against Defendant and Released Parties (including Unknown Claims). Claims to enforce the terms of this Agreement are not released.

8.2. Upon the Effective Date, all Settling Plaintiffs and anyone claiming through or on behalf of any of them, will be forever barred and enjoined from commencing, instituting, prosecuting, or continuing to prosecute any action or other proceeding in any court of law or equity, arbitration tribunal, or administrative forum, asserting the Released Claims against the Defendant and Released Parties.

8.3. Upon the Effective Date, if any Settling Plaintiff or Representative Plaintiff maintains a balance in any Total Control Account, MetLife and its Affiliated Entities can continue to maintain, operate, and administer Total Control Accounts, including investing funds, earning and retention of profits on those investments, and paying interest on those funds, as Defendant and its Affiliated Entities see fit. Aside from whatever funds they are entitled to under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Class Members are not entitled to any monies, profits or interest beyond the funds credited to their Total Control Accounts and the interest that is actually paid on the Total Control Account balances in accordance with the applicable Customer Agreement and any related administrative agreement, privacy notices, policies, certificates, or other related documents. Pursuant to the terms of the applicable Customer Agreements, any Total Control Account holder may choose to close the Total Control Account at any time or keep it open. For the avoidance of doubt, all claims relating to the settlement or payment of benefits via retained asset account, including but not limited to all claims relating to the provision and administration of any Total Control Accounts that maintain a balance after the Effective Date, including any claims related to the payment of benefits or interest thereunder, shall be deemed Released Claims.

8.4. No Class Member shall have any claim against Class Counsel, the Settlement Administrator, Defendant's counsel, or Defendant or its Affiliated Entities based upon any distribution made substantially in accordance with this Agreement or further orders of the Court.

having considered all papers filed and proceedings had herein and otherwise being duly informed in the premises and good cause appearing therefore, it is this ____ day of _____, 2019, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT:

1. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this litigation and over all parties to this litigation, including all members of the two Classes.
2. The mailing of individual notice to each individual class member as specified in this Court's prior orders satisfies Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23, any other applicable law, and due process, and constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances; and due and sufficient notices of the Final Approval Hearing and the rights of all Class Members have been provided to all people, powers, and entities, entitled thereto.
3. Pursuant to the Class Action Fairness Act, 29 U.S.C. § 1711, et seq., notice was provided to the Attorneys General for each of the states in which a Settlement Class Member resides, the Attorney General of the United States, and the United States Secretary of Labor. All requirements of the Class Action Fairness Act, 29 U.S.C. § 1711, et seq., have been met.
4. As to the Owens Class, ____ class members filed a formal objection to the Settlement and ____ class members appeared at the hearing to object to the Settlement.

5. Members of the Owens Class had the opportunity to be heard on all issues regarding the resolution and release of their claims by submitting objections to the Settlement Agreement to the Court.
6. As to the Smith Class, _____ class members filed a formal objection to the Settlement and _____ class members appeared at the hearing to object to the Settlement.
7. Members of the Smith Class had the opportunity to be heard on all issues regarding the resolution and release of their claims by submitting objections to the Settlement Agreement to the Court.
8. Each and every Objection to the settlement is overruled with prejudice.
9. The motions for final approval of the Owens Class and the Smith Class Settlement Agreements are hereby GRANTED, the settlement of the Class Action is APPROVED as fair, reasonable and adequate to the Plan and the Class, and the Settling Parties are hereby directed to take the necessary steps to effectuate the terms of the Settlement Agreement.
10. The Court hereby approves the Settlements set forth in the Settlement Agreements and in the Distribution Plans for each Class, and finds that said

Settlements, Settlement Agreements and Distribution Plans are in all respects, fair, reasonable and adequate to all members of the Settlement Classes that include:

Owens Class

Expressly excluded from the class are beneficiaries under policies that, at the time of the insured's death, contained the statement in the policy certificate or an endorsement to the policy certificate that expressly states that claims for benefits can be settled “by establishing an account that earns interest.”¹

¹ For purposes of this settlement, by agreement of the parties, a policy certificate is deemed to include this language as of the date that MetLife's records produced in this litigation indicate MetLife: (a) issued to the policyholder a rider that purported to amend or clarify the policy to include this language; or (b) included such language in a newly-issued certificate. In addition, based upon documents produced by MetLife and deposition testimony provided on its behalf, for all policies and customers for whom a specific rider or certificate has not been identified and produced to Plaintiffs as of March 31, 2019, all such policies are deemed to include this language (a) as of September 1, 2012, for all policies associated with customers MetLife categorizes as “National Accounts” or “Regional Market” accounts; and (b) as of December 31, 2012 for all policies associated with customers MetLife categorizes as “Local Market” accounts.

11. The members of the Settlement Classes (and their respective heirs, beneficiaries, executors, administrators, estates, past and present partners, officers, directors, agents, attorneys, predecessors, successors and assigns) who did not make a valid and timely request for exclusion from their respective Classes, shall be deemed conclusively to have released any and all Released Claims. “Released Claims” means any and all claims (including but not limited to “Unknown Claims”), demands, losses, rights, appeals, and causes of action of any nature whatsoever, that have been or could have been asserted in the Action or could in the future be asserted in law that were raised or could have been raised in this litigation, including, without limitation, any violation of ERISA or state law (including but not limited to any Georgia state law claim, which includes but is not limited to any claim under O.C.G.A. § 33-25-10 or O.C.G.A. § 33-38-1, et seq.); any intentional wrongdoing; any fraud, misrepresentation or negligent misrepresentation; any breach of fiduciary duty; any breach of contract; any breach of the duty of good faith and/or fair dealing; any prohibited transactions; and includes any claims for damages, profits, interest, accounting for profits, unjust enrichment, attorneys' fees, punitive damages, or equitable relief. For the avoidance of doubt, the Settlement Agreement shall not release the claims of any Class Member under any insurance policies unrelated to this case.

12. Pending final determination of whether the Settlement Agreement should be approved, no Class Member may directly, through representatives, or in any other capacity, commence any action or proceeding in any court or tribunal asserting any of the Released Claims against the Released Parties.
13. Class Counsel, the Class Representatives, or the Class Members who did not make a valid and timely request for exclusion from their respective Classes may hereafter discover facts in addition to or different from those that they know or believe to be true with respect to the Released Claims. Such facts, if known by them, might have affected the decision to settle with the Defendant and the Released Parties or the decision to release, relinquish, waive, and discharge the Released Claims, or might have affected the decision of a Class Member not to object to the Settlement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, each Class Representative and Class Member who did not make a valid and timely request for exclusion from their respective Classes has hereby fully, finally and forever settled, released, relinquished, waived and discharged any and all Released Claims, and each Class Representative and Class Member who did not make a valid and timely request for exclusion from their respective Classes has hereby acknowledged that the foregoing waiver was bargained for separately and is a key element of the Settlement embodied in the Settlement Agreement of which this release is a part.

14. In the Owens Class, the application by Class Counsel for reimbursement of expenses and reasonable attorneys' fees is granted. Attorneys' fees and expense reimbursement in an amount of $_____ are hereby found to be reasonable and are awarded to Class Counsel. Class Counsel shall recover such fees and expenses from the Settlement Fund as and in the manner described in the Settlement Agreement. The Court finds that $_____ shall be paid the named Plaintiff and Class Representative, Laura A. Owens, as an incentive award for her efforts in prosecuting this case. These awards shall be paid from the Settlement Fund as and in the manner described in the Settlement Agreement.

15. In the Smith Class, the application by Class Counsel for reimbursement of expenses and reasonable attorneys' fees is granted. Attorneys' fees and expense reimbursement in an amount of $_____ are hereby found to be reasonable and are awarded to Class Counsel. Class Counsel shall recover such fees and expenses from the Settlement Fund as and in the manner described in the Settlement Agreement. The Court finds that $_____ shall be paid the named Plaintiff and Class Representative, Joshua R. Smith, as an incentive award for his efforts in prosecuting this case. These awards shall be paid from the Settlement Fund as and in the manner described in the Settlement Agreement.

16. Pursuant to the Settlement Agreements, the Settlement Funds shall bear all notice costs, costs associated with payment of the settlement proceeds, Settlement Administrator fees, Class Counsel's attorneys' fees and expenses, and incentive awards to the named Plaintiffs in each Class.
17. The Settlement Administrator shall have final authority to determine the share of the Net Settlement Amount to be allocated to each Class Member who did not make a valid and timely request for exclusion from their respective Classes.
18. This entire action is hereby dismissed with prejudice as to the Settled Claims of the Settlement Class Members of the Owens Class and the Smith Class, and without taxable costs to the parties.
19. The Court reserves jurisdiction, without affecting the finality of this Judgment, over:
 - a. Implementation of the Settlements;
 - b. Disposition of the Settlement Funds; and
 - c. Enforcing and administering the Settlement Agreements.
20. Upon entry of this Order, all Class Members who did not make a valid and timely request for exclusion from their respective Classes shall be bound by the Settlement Agreement as amended and by this Final Order.

NOTICE OF SMITH CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

A federal court authorized this notice.
This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS ARE AFFECTED WHETHER YOU ACT, OR DON'T ACT. READ THIS NOTICE CAREFULLY. These rights and options—and the deadlines to exercise them—are explained in this notice.

Your Legal Rights and Options in this Settlement:
Do Nothing:	You will be paid a proportional share of the net settlement proceeds in accordance with the Distribution Plan as long as your calculated distribution is not less than $10.00. Class members whose calculated distribution is less than $10.00 will not receive a distribution under this settlement. See section 4 of this notice for more details.
Exclude Yourself	Get no payment. If you exclude yourself, you cannot object to the settlement, but you would not be barred by the settlement from bringing a suit of your own.
Object:	Write to the Court about why you don't like the settlement and do not want it approved. Act by _____, 2019. See section 11 of this notice for more details.
Go to a Hearing:	Ask to speak in Court about the fairness of the settlement on _____, 2019. See section 13 of this notice for more details.

1. Why did I receive this notice?

You received this notice because it appears from MetLife's records that you are a member of the Smith class that is covered by this lawsuit. The Court directed that this notice be sent to you to inform you about a proposed settlement of this lawsuit and your rights and options.

2. What is this lawsuit about?

This lawsuit concerns MetLife's use of retained asset accounts called "Total Control Accounts" to settle claims for life insurance benefits due under ERISA-governed employee benefit plans ("Plans"). A retained asset account is a method of settling claims in which an insurance company: (a) establishes an interest-bearing account through a bank for the beneficiary, (b) issues the beneficiary a book of blank drafts that resembles a checkbook to use to access the settlement amount, and (c) retains and invests the money owed to the beneficiary until it is called upon to transfer funds to the bank to cover drafts drawn on the account.

The Plaintiff alleges that MetLife's use of Total Control Accounts to settle claims is unfair because MetLife may earn income by investing the funds held in the Total Control Accounts. The Plaintiff further alleges that the practice is improper because MetLife controls how much income it receives from the practice and does not disclose this income to the Plans. The Plaintiff alleges that these practices violate a federal law, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA"), that requires persons who administer employee benefit plans to act in accordance with the plans' terms and solely in the interests of the plans' beneficiaries ("Count 1"), and prohibits plan administrators from engaging in certain types of transactions due to their potential for abuse. (Counts 2-4)

MetLife denies these allegations and contends that its conduct was at all times lawful under ERISA.

3. What has happened so far in the case?

The parties have now reached a proposed settlement for a class ("Class") defined as follows:

All life insurance beneficiaries of ERISA-governed employee benefit plans that were insured by group life insurance policies issued by MetLife that provide for payment in "one sum" for whom MetLife established a "Total Control Account" (a) between January 1, 2013 and March 31, 2019; and (b) between April 18, 2008 and December 31, 2012 for all policies that, at the time of the insured's death, contained the statement in the policy certificate or an endorsement to the policy certificate that expressly states that claims for benefits can be settled "by establishing an account that earns interest."¹

The Class Representative and his attorneys think the settlement is in the best interests of all Smith Class Members.

4. What does the settlement provide?

MetLife has agreed to pay Five Million Dollars ($5,000,000.00) to settle the lawsuit, which will be paid into the Settlement Fund (as defined in the Settlement Agreement). The settlement proceeds will be distributed to each Smith Class Member based upon his or her share in accordance with the Distribution Plan. The amount payable

For purposes of this settlement, by agreement of the parties, a policy certificate is deemed to include this language as of the date that MetLife's records produced in this litigation indicate MetLife: (a) issued to the policyholder a rider that purported to amend or clarify the policy to include this language; or (b) included such language in a newly-issued certificate. In addition, based upon documents produced by MetLife and deposition testimony provided on its behalf, for all policies and customers for whom a specific rider or certificate has not been identified and produced to Plaintiffs as of March 31, 2019, all such policies are deemed to include this language (a) as of September 1, 2012, for all policies associated with customers MetLife categorizes as "National Accounts" or "Regional Market" accounts; and (b) as of December 31, 2012 for all policies associated with customers MetLife categorizes as "Local Market" accounts.

to each Class Member will vary, depending on, among other things, the size of the Class Member's life insurance benefit, how long his or her Total Control Account was open, the amount of interest credited to the Class Member's Total Control Account, and the passage of time. Should the amount allocated to any Class Member be less than $10.00 (net of fees and expenses), that Class Member will not receive a payment.

The Settlement Agreement, the Distribution Plan and other papers, in both English and Spanish, can be found at www.smithclassaction.com.

5. When and where will the Court decide whether to approve the settlement?

The Court will hold a hearing to decide whether to approve the settlement. You may attend and you may ask to speak, but you don't have to. The hearing will be held on _____, 2019, at _____.m. in Courtroom ___, United State Courthouse, 122 Spring Street, Gainesville, Georgia 30501. At this hearing, the Court will consider whether the settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. If there are objections, the Court will consider them. The Court will listen to people who have asked to speak at the hearing. The Court may also decide how much to pay to Class Counsel. At or after the hearing, the Court will decide whether to approve the settlement.

The Court has reserved the right to change the date and time of the Final Approval Hearing without further notice to the Class. If you would like to attend the hearing, please check the website www.smithclassaction.com for any changes of the hearing date.

6. How and when can I receive payment?

You need to do nothing. If the settlement is approved and your share of the settlement (net of fees and expenses) is $10.00 or more, a check will be mailed to you at this same address. If there is an appeal, then settlement checks will not be issued until the appeal is resolved and the order approving the settlement is approved by the appeals court.

7. What if I currently have a balance in a Total Control Account?

If you currently have a balance in a Total Control Account, MetLife will continue to administer the account in accord with the account agreement. MetLife will continue to guarantee the balance and credit interest on that balance. MetLife will be free to invest the funds associated with that balance as it sees fit. MetLife may make more investment income using your funds than the interest that it pays to you. Part of this settlement includes a release of all claims relating to the rate of interest credited to Total Control Accounts issued under the Plans. As was always the case, you may choose to close your Total Control Account or keep it open.

8. Do I have a lawyer in this case?

The Court appointed John C. Bell, Jr., Esq., Lee W. Brigham, Esq., Wm Gregory Dobson, Esq., Michael J. Lober, Esq., John W. Oxendine, Esq., Todd L. Lord, Esq., Jason J. Carter, Esq. and Michael B. Terry, Esq. to represent you and other Class Members. These lawyers are called Class Counsel. You will not be personally charged for these lawyers. If you want to be represented by your own lawyer, you may hire one at your own expense.

9. How will the lawyers be paid?

Class Counsel will ask the Court to award attorneys' fees and will seek reimbursement of their expenses incurred to prosecute this action and administer this settlement of no more than one-third of the Settlement Fund, and to seek an incentive award of up to ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00) to the Class Representative, all to be paid from the Settlement Fund. Attorneys' fees, expenses and incentive awards will be determined by the Court following a hearing and will be based upon the evidence presented and legal principles that govern such awards. The Court may award less than the amounts requested. MetLife has agreed not to oppose the application for attorneys' fees, expenses and the incentive award.

10. How do I get out of the settlement?

To exclude yourself from the settlement, you must submit to the Administrator at the address listed below, a written, signed, and dated statement that you are opting out of the Class and that you understand that you will receive no money from the Settlement of this Action. To be effective, this opt-out statement (i) must be received by the Administrator no later than _____, 2019, (ii) include your name and last four digits of your social security number, and (iii) must be personally signed and dated by you.

Smith Class Action Settlement – Exclusions
Settlement Administrator
P.O. Box 23369
Jacksonville, FL 32241

You can't exclude yourself on the phone or by e-mail. If you are excluded, you will not get any settlement payment, you cannot object to the settlement, you will not be legally bound by anything that happens in this lawsuit, and you may be able to sue (or continue to sue) MetLife in the future for these same claims, but your claims may be time-barred.

11. How do I object to the settlement?

If you are a Class Member, you can object to the settlement. You can give reasons why you think the Court should not approve it. The Court will consider your views. To object, you must send a letter saying that you object to the settlement. The letter must include certain information. This information is described in paragraph 3.6 of the Settlement Agreement, which is available online at www.smithclassaction.com.

DO NOT CALL THE COURT. Mail or electronically file the objection with the Clerk of the Court, James A. Hatten, U.S. Courthouse, 121 Spring Street, Gainesville, Georgia 30501, so that is received by the Clerk no later than _____, 2019.

12. Do I have to come to the hearing?

No, but you are welcome to come at your own expense. If you send an objection, you don't have to come to Court. As long as you submitted your written objection on time, the Court will consider it. You may also pay your own lawyer to attend, but this is not necessary.

13. May I speak at the hearing?

You may ask the Court for permission to speak at the Final Approval Hearing. To do so, you must send a letter saying that it is your "Notice of Intention to Appear." Include your name, address, telephone number, and your signature. Your Notice of Intention to Appear must be received by _____, 2019, by the Clerk of the Court at the address noted in question 11.

14. Are there more details about the settlement?

You may visit the website at www.smithclassaction.com, where you will find copies of the Settlement Agreement and significant orders, as well as other information that may help you determine whether you are a Class Member and whether you are eligible for a payment. You may also call 1-800-501-9615 toll free, or write to Smith Class Action, c/o Settlement Administrator, P.O. Box 23369, Jacksonville, FL 32241.
